SECTION 4 NON-BINDING BENEFICIARY NOMINATION

A non-binding beneficiary nomination allows you to nominate who you'd prefer your benefit be paid to in the event of your death. You can nominate one or more of your dependants and/or your legal personal representative. A non-binding beneficiary nomination is not binding on the Trustee, however it will be taken into account when the Trustee determines who will receive your benefit.

Refer to your UniSuper product disclosure statement or unisuper.com.au/beneficiaries for more information on non-binding beneficiary nominations.

If you'd like to make, update or revoke your binding death benefit nomination, please complete a new Binding Death Benefit Nomination form available from our website or by calling us.

I want to (select one box only):

- Make a new or update my existing non-binding beneficiary nomination(s). Complete the fields in this section.
- Revoke my existing non-binding beneficiary nomination(s). Go to SECTION 5.

Please nominate your non-binding beneficiaries. (The total percentage of benefit nominations must add up to 100%.)

PRIVACY STATEMENT

We recognise the importance of protecting your personal information and are committed to complying with our privacy law obligations. We collect your personal information to administer your account, ensure you're eligible for insurance cover, provide you with UniSuper membership benefits, services and products, verify your identity and improve our products and services. You consent to our collecting sensitive information about you, where collecting that information is reasonably necessary for us to perform one or more of our functions or activities.

We usually collect personal and sensitive information directly from you, however, it may also be collected from third parties, such as your employer. We may also collect this information from you because we're required or authorised by or under an Australian law or a court/ tribunal order to collect that information. If you don't provide this information, we may not be able to administer your account, provide you with a product or service or you may be disadvantaged in some other way.

We may disclose your information to any service provider we engage (for example mail-houses, auditors, insurers, actuaries, lawyers and research consultants) to carry out or help us provide your membership benefits, services and products. This includes overseas entities. The countries we may disclose personal information to are Japan, Canada and the United States of America. Where information is transferred overseas, we'll seek to ensure the recipient of the data has security systems to prevent misuse, loss or unauthorised disclosure in line with Australian laws and standards.

Our Privacy Policy contains information about how you can access any personal information we hold, how to correct your information and how to make a complaint about a breach of the Privacy Act. It's available at unisuper.com.au or by calling us on 1800 331 685.

Your guide to proof of identity

We take looking after your retirement savings very seriously—which is why you need to prove your identity (ID) before making withdrawals or other important changes to your account.

Verify your identity online

Proving your identity online is quick and easy—you'll know as soon as your identity gets verified. Log in at unisuper.com.au/memberonline to get started. Only Australian residents with Australian documents currently living in Australia can verify their identity through their online account.

You'll need one or more of the following valid documents:

- Australian passport
- Australian visa
- Australian citizenship certificate
- Australian birth certificate
- Australian driver's licence
- Medicare card
- Centrelink card
- state and federal electoral roll details
- Notice of Assessment from the Australian Taxation Office (less than 12 months old) containing your name and residential address.

Make sure you've updated your current personal details with relevant government agencies before you begin the process of verifying your identity online. We use online government and public databases to securely verify your identity.

Or send us certified copies of your ID

You can also send us certified copies of your ID. The following guide explains the types of documents we can accept and how to ensure they're correctly certified.

ALLOW US TO VERIFY YOUR IDENTITY

In some cases and on some of our forms, we can verify your identity on your behalf if the document(s) you provide haven't been certified correctly or can't be read. All you need to do is give us consent and we'll try to verify your identity electronically using those documents. We'll let you know if the process wasn't successful.

Why provide your TFN?

Giving us your tax file number (TFN) means we can process rollover and transfer requests to another super fund without additional proof of identity. If your TFN can't be validated, or you want to transfer to a self-managed super fund or organise a benefit payment, you'll still need to give us certified copies of your ID.

Visit unisuper.com.au/memberonline to provide your TFN online.

STEP 1: COLLECT ACCEPTABLE DOCUMENTS

We'll accept either one document from List A or two documents from List B.

LIST A

A certified copy of a:

- current driver licence
- current passport (Australian passports that haven't expired more than two years ago are also acceptable).

State government-issued ID cards

We want it to be as convenient as possible for you to change or verify your details with us. You can provide a certified copy of the following valid state government-issued ID cards instead of your current driver licence or passport:

- Victorian proof of age card
- Queensland proof of age card
- South Australian proof of age card
- New South Wales photo card
- Western Australia photo card
- Tasmanian personal information card
- Australian Capital Territory (ACT) proof of identity card
- Northern Territory evidence of age card.

LIST B

A certified copy of a:

- birth certificate or birth extract
- Australian citizenship certificate
- a pension card issued by Centrelink that entitles the person to financial benefits.

And:

- Notice of Assessment from the Australian Taxation Office (less than 12 months old) containing your name and residential address
- letter from Centrelink regarding a government assistance payment
- rates notice from local council (less than 12 months old) containing your name and residential address
- electricity, gas or water bill dated within the past three months that contains your name and residential address.

STEP 2: CERTIFY YOUR DOCUMENTS

Take your original document(s) and a clear photocopy of both sides of the original document to an authorised person—we'll list who can authorise your documents below.

Your ID must be properly certified

The authorised person will need to:

1. sight the original document, and the copy, to ensure both documents are identical, and
2. write or stamp 'this is a true and correct copy of the original document I have sighted' or 'certified true copy', followed by their:
 - signature
 - printed name
 - qualification (e.g. Magistrate), and
 - date.

If you've changed your name or are signing on behalf of another member, we require that you prove the 'link' between you and the name change, or other person. Use a certified copy of one of the following documents as well as your other certified ID.

PURPOSE	SUITABLE LINKING DOCUMENT
Change of name	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Marriage certificate▪ Deed poll or change of name certificate from the Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages
Signing on behalf of another member	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Power of Attorney▪ Guardianship papers

When having your documents certified, remember:

- all pages must be certified
- the copy of the document must be certified—not on a separate page attached to the document
- certified copies of your documents must have an original signature
- faxed or emailed copies won't be accepted
- documents not written in English must be accompanied by an English translation prepared by an accredited translator
- documents certified more than a year ago won't be accepted.

Who can certify your documents

Some of the people authorised to certify IDs include:

1. A person currently licensed or registered under a state or territory law to practise in one of the following occupations:
 - architect
 - nurse
 - chiropractor
 - occupational therapist
 - conveyancer
 - optometrist
 - dentist
 - patent or trade marks attorney
 - financial adviser or financial planner
 - pharmacist
 - legal practitioner
 - physiotherapist
 - medical practitioner
 - psychologist
 - midwife
 - veterinary surgeon.
2. One of the following persons:
 - teacher employed full-time at a school or tertiary education institution
 - agent of the Australian Postal Corporation who is in charge of, or a permanent employee with two or more years of continuous service with, an office supplying postal services to the public
 - bank, building society, credit union or finance company officer with two or more years of continuous service
 - clerk, master, registrar or deputy registrar of a court
 - judge of a court or a magistrate
 - justice of the peace
 - member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia, the Australian Society of Certified Practising Accountants, the Institute of Public Accountants or the Association of Taxation and Management Accountants, or a Fellow of the National Tax Accountants' Association
 - notary public, and
 - police officer.

Members residing overseas

If you live overseas, the following people are authorised to certify identification documents:

- Australian Consular Officer or Australian Diplomatic Officer (within the meaning of the Consular Fees Act 1955)
- employee of the Commonwealth or the Australian Trade Commission who is authorised and exercising his or her function in a country or place outside Australia.
- a person authorised as a notary public in a foreign country.

Your documents must be certified by a person with an Australian connection. We won't accept certifications by someone licensed or registered to practise outside of Australia in an occupation listed above, or who holds a position in a foreign country—except for a foreign notary public.

When will my form be processed?

If you've provided a correctly completed form (and any certified ID or other paperwork required), we'll aim to process your request as soon as possible. Not providing correct information may delay us processing your request. Please allow 3-5 business days for your form to arrive. We'll contact you if we have any queries in relation to your request.
