

Our review service

WE ARE AN AWARD-WINNING SUPER FUND

We're recognised as a fund that delivers the very best in long-term investment performance, value and member services by the country's top ratings and research agencies.

Advice to suit your life - now and down the track

As your life changes, so will your short, medium and long term goals. You'll be faced with many big decisions in life, and the need to adjust your financial strategy to reflect your decisions or unexpected surprises may arise.

Our qualified team of advisers can help you incorporate these life changes into your financial strategy. Even if you feel your circumstances have not changed, it's important that you:

- consider any opportunities that you or your family may benefit from
- examine your investment strategy to ensure it falls in line with your original or evolving goals and objectives
- ensure you are up-to-date with legislative changes that may affect your financial strategy. For example, rules surrounding super contributions or social security entitlements, such as Age Pension eligibility, change regularly.

Once you have taken that important step and received professional financial advice, it makes sense to review your financial plan on a regular basis.

COMMON EVENTS THAT MAY TRIGGER A FINANCIAL STRATEGY REVIEW:

- a life changing event: change in relationship, caring for loved ones, dealing with illness
- receiving an inheritance
- changing job and income or being made redundant
- changes in investment risk appetite.

Benefits of our review service

A formal review of your financial situation includes:

- An assessment of how you're progressing towards achieving your financial goals.
- A review of your investment portfolio and changes made where necessary. We take into consideration any changes to your position and your attitude towards investment risks.
- A tailored written advice document outlining all of our recommendations from your review. Here we will revise your financial plan if required in light of changes to your financial situation, including any economic and legislative changes.
- Assistance with the implementation of the review recommendations.

During the 12 months following your review appointment, you will also have:

- Access to our experienced team to the extent it relates to the advice strategy provided and implementation of that advice.
- UniSuper Advice has an in depth knowledge of super, social security, estate planning, investment strategies, the higher education sector and the unique employment and renumeration patterns it presents.

Advice to suit your life – now and down the track

Every life stage and event brings with it different financial decisions.

Our financial advisers can help you navigate these with our review service.

During your young adult life, you might start thinking about your future plans. This could include:

- travelling
- · getting married
- · buying your first home
- · having children.

You may be considering what kind of insurance you may need such as income protection and other forms of personal insurance, or managing debt and/or an investment savings plan.

Your finances might start becoming more complex with competing priorities:

- · children's education
- family health care
- caring for your parents
- your future retirement.

Actions such as creating a savings plan, investing for retirement and managing your cash flow to meet your financial commitment might become important.

Our review service 5

"You may want to focus on preserving your capital, managing your income and understanding your retirement expenses."

Pre-retirement

Your priorities may depend on how prepared you are for:

- changes in employment, such as changing jobs or reducing hours
- children moving out of home or getting a job
- paying off your mortgage
- building your retirement funds (e.g. contributing into super)
- · understanding when can you afford to retire
- review of investment allocation in the lead up to retirement.

Points to consider include protecting your assets, eliminating debt, helping your family, understanding your financial readiness for retirement and estate planning.

Your priorities may change and you might want to spend extra time with your family or indulge in travel and hobbies.

You may be interested in:

- your source of income once your regular salary stops
- providing for children/grandchildren
- relocating/downsizing/selling your home
- volunteering or charitable causes
- Centrelink estimates such as eligibility for Age Pension or concessions.

You may want to focus on preserving your capital, managing your income and understanding your retirement expenses. Estate planning and aged care may also be a consideration.
